

Preventing Discrimination and Harassment Training: Industrial Edition

Whether you work with the products, monitor quality, or schedule work flows, industrial employees need to understand how discrimination and harassment laws apply in the workplace, and the types of behavior that can lead to a hostile work environment and may impact employee turnover, productivity, and company reputation.

EDUCATE | MOTIVATE | INFLUENCE

Traliant's award-winning Preventing Discrimination and Harassment for Industrial is interactive training that shows employees and managers how to recognize and respond appropriately to harassment, discrimination, retaliation, and other misconduct they may encounter in industrial organizations. The course focuses on positive behavior and decision-making through bite-sized episodes and interactive videos tailored for the industrial sector.

The training is available in multiple languages and in separate versions for Employees and Managers, who have additional responsibilities to prevent and report workplace misconduct.
